Farm Outlook Not Bright

Will the large crops now being harvested and marketed improve the general situation in which the farmer of the United States has found himself since the deflation started in 1920? Most farm leaders and agricultural economists are rather pessimistic concerning the immediate outlook.

A recent statement of conditions, published by the United States department of agriculture, gives the situation over the country as one of mixed sentiment. A few sections, according to the statement, report farmers as making a little money, and the prices of some commodities the best in three years. The trend of average prices received at the farm by producers up to September, however, is generally downward. Farm leaders here say that reports indicate that Ohio farmers are not hit quite so hard as those of some other states, but the immediate outlook here is not particularly rosy.

"People of the cities do not understand the situation in the country," said C. E. Bradfute, president of the Ohio Farm Bureau federation, in commenting on the situation Saturday. "I am not a pessimist, or a confirmed complainer, I believe agriculture must come back, but it's going to take considerable readjustment."

"Farming as a business cannot continue on the basis of the 64 cent dollar," continued Mr. Bradfute. "There are very few commodities being produced on the farms today that are bringing cost of production. What we are doing is living at the expense of our soil fertility and the standards of farm living. Actual prices are not as important as the relative prices, and the farmer is not receiving his just share."

Mr. Bradfute substantiated his beliefs with a statement giving a summary of the economic conditions prepared by a noted agricultural economist for agricultural leaders. The statement in part says:

"The farmer is about in the position of a six-foot man who has been standing in five feet of water and now sees it beginning to rain. When the water is five feet deep, the farmer is not worried. But when it begins to rain, he is in a bad fix. It seemed to recover a little last spring as prices of cotton, hogs and wool improved. But now the disparity is again so widening between prices of farm products and industrial products that it is becoming something for the community to take account of. "This is the third successive year of big crops. That is the farmer's way of trying to pull himself out of a hole of debt. He does not strike. His stake in the country outweighs his grievances. He works."

"For all his hard work, however, the farmer's world stays out of joint. His purchasing power has lately dropped to just about its lowest point since the war—the quantity of farm products that would buy $100 worth of other things in 1913 will now buy $64 worth."

"It is not alone that farm products stay low, but that manufactured goods have again started upward. Urban industries during the summer pushed up its wages and prices so far out of line that the community is enjoying its abundance once more very largely at the farmer's expense."

"All evidence indicates that in trying to catch up with its deflation losses agriculture has maintained its pace these three years only at the expense of its living standards and of its productive plant—buildings, fences, drains, soil fertility. Farmers are looking out now from their harvest fields and wondering when 're-adjustment' is likely to become something more than a figure of speech."

RIO GRANDE GAME SATURDAY

The Rio Grande football team will arrive here Friday afternoon, ready for the game Saturday with the College boys. There will be 18 in the Rio Grande party and the local teams will entertain the crowd, until after the game Saturday afternoon. The Rio Grande team is nearer the weight of the local college team than any team that has been met this season. Go out and see the game and help the boys out on the expense of bringing the visitors here. There is strong hoping that our boys will be successful this time. Coach Warner has been giving the boys a good work out.

WILL RETIRE THE 20TH.

Oscar Satterfield will retire on the 20th of this month as driver of Rural Route One, having served a few days over 21 years. He had the option under the Civil Service rules of staying with some new dish for which we thank Mrs. Morton. Our "cats" sure are good, almost like home. Charles Brown is absent on account of illness. We hope it is not serious, and that he will soon be back to school.

COLLEGE NOTES

College surely is going fine this year. We are striving to make it the best it has ever been with good earnest studying and we are making the old school just echo with our pep!

Not only is the school echoing with our pep but the harmonious notes of our newly organized orchestra. Tuesday all students possessing some musical talent organized a college orchestra. Their officers are: Lucile Johnson, manager, director and leader, Forrest Nagley, secretary and treasurer; and Donald Wickerham, sergeant-at-arms.

The members of this organization are: Lucile Johnson, Forrest Nagley, Donald Wickerham, Lois Hutchison, Dwight McKune, Lulu Murphy, Frank Gerren, Hubert Smith, Julius Boyver and Charles Brown. We are so glad the new students have taken such an active part and we, as the College, wish you much success, our C. C. "Orchestra".

Wednesday was Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. day at the College. The Y. M. C. A. was led by Fred Willis, his talk being "What the Y. M. C. A. Means to the College." It surely did prove to be a very interesting meeting and the young men are taking a very active part which of course means a great deal to them, aids the leader, and is making the Y. M. C. A. a success.

In the Y. W. C. A. meeting, Marie Meahl led with "The Lily" as her topic for the meeting. The lily was compared to the lives of young girls and how profitable it would be if the young girls would strive to be more like a lily making her of greater service to all her friends and Cedarville College. We are glad the girls are taking an active part and we hope as this year goes on we will find to our advantage the talent we have in our College.

Thursday after chapel, Forrest with all his original pep led the students in a very spirited pep meeting preparing for the game on the morrow.

Friday after chapel the students, with a Rahl Rahl Rahl, ran yelling to the College stadium for a football game. The boys' teams were almost torn asunder with their "goose" splitting yells but it filled them with pep for the game that was to be staged that afternoon at Antioch.

At 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon the machines were off with the players for the game. At 2:30 almost the whole college was over at Antioch.

The coach had told the girls at Gym to yell themselves hoarse and they surely did. But, oh, it did help so much. It gave the Yellows the assurance that we were back of them, wishing them victory.

Yes, we enjoyed the bleachers. They were so comfortable. We hear the Dean of Women at Antioch was sorry that the students had been so discourteous and that she was going to have the matter brought before the student body of Antioch at chapel Monday. But, maybe the standing helped some of our members grow a few feet taller. Did it?

We thank the ministers for the hearty support they gave us at the game. It surely shows that all Cedarville is interested in us because many of our other friends were there too, giving us their loyal support for which we surely thank them.

Oh yes, Seniors, how was your feed? We hear you had a good time way out in the woods. There won't be many more such days for you but we wish you just the best of good times at every one of your gay occasions.

Say, girls was it cold—ah? No, we won't tell, not one word. But we heard all about it just the same, yes street.

You ought to see the College students in Gym. We suspect Coach Warner thinks he has a very awkward bunch of students to try to teach, perhaps in vain, but some of the antics are awful postures and twists. Slowly the soreness is wearing off, and soon we hope to be A in our Gym work for we surely do like it.

The pastors are very well pleased with the interest and support the College students are giving in the different churches in the community. We are glad that we can give all the churches hearty support because of the principles our College upholds.

Every day at the Club means a better and happier day for the students for we are always being surprised with some new dish for which we thank Mrs. Morton. Our "cats" sure are good, almost like home.

Charles Brown is absent on account of illness. We hope it is not serious, and that he will soon be back to school.

Farmers Will Rally Wednesday

The agricultural community day at Washington C. H. next week promises to be one of the great events among farmers in this section of Ohio. There are eight counties, Madison, Ross, Highland, Pickaway, Clinton, Greene, Montgomery and Fayette in on the event. There will be a mammoth pageant in which more than 50 floats will be seen in addition to other novel parade features. Secretary Henry C. Wallace of Washington, D. C., will be the speaker of note with other notables. Each of the eight counties will be represented in the parade.

PITTSBURG NATIONALS COME TO SPRINGFIELD TOMORROW

What is probably the greatest baseball attraction that has visited this vicinity in several years comes to Springfield next Saturday, Oct. 14th when the Pittsburgh National league baseball club plays the P. O. E. Athletics at Eagle field. The Pittsburgh club has promised the Springfield to bring its regular lineup with such stars as Maranville, Carey, Bigbee, Russell, Tierney, Traynor, Grimm, Coch, Mattox, Jonard, Cooper, Morrison and Carlson. A number from here are expected to attend this game.

BARBER ESTATE APPRAISED

As a result of a partition suit filed some time ago by Warren Barber against J. Fred Barber, the court has named W. L. Clemans, A. H. Cresswell and Frank Townsley as appraisers. The home farm of 80 acres was appraised at $80 an acre and a tract of 29 acres across the road at $75 an acre. The Little farm of 113 acres was appraised at $65 an acre. The two store rooms occupied by M. C. Nagley and H. Bates were appraised at $6,000. The object of the appraisement was to enable an equitable division of the property.

GOLDEN SNARE COMING

James Oliver Curwood never wrote a better story—never made a faster picture, than the Golden Snare. This picture comes to the Murdock theatre on Thursday, October 12th. The story of the great North-West and was written after a trip of 3000 miles by train, automobile, horseback, pack mule, snow sledges and on snow shoes covering a space of six weeks. The writer based his story of the "Golden Snare" on his happenings of the trip. Go see it and learn about the land of perpetual ice and snow.

COUNCIL MEETING.

A special meeting of council was held Wednesday by council at which time an ordinance regulating parking of automobiles was passed. A fine not exceeding $50 may be assessed for a violation. Council also heard the report of the special committee relative to the North Main street improvement. An engineer will be procured and estimates made for the bond issue.

CONGREGATION GIVES AUTO

Last August Rev. T. R. Turner of Quincy, Mass., lost his Ford touring car during a fire in a garage while stopping in Chautauque, N. Y. Word has been received here that Rev. Turner's congregation has just presented him with a new Ford touring of the late model.

PETERS-WINTER NUPTIALS

The Ironton Daily Register gives the following account of the marriage of Mrs. Gertrude Peters and Mr. Andrew Winter:

"Quiet and simplicity marked the beautiful wedding of Mrs. Gertrude Peters and Mr. Andrew Winter, which took place at the noon hour today (October 4) at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peters at Sixth and Center streets. Rev. W. B. Blume the bride's pastor, assisted by Rev. E. B. Townsend officiated, using the very beautiful and impressive ring ceremony. The bride was very becomingly gowned in a dark blue coat suit with accessories to match the contrasting color being beige. Only the members of the immediate family were in attendance at the wedding. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left amid a shower of rice and congratulations in their car for a short wedding trip and in a few days will be at home to their many friends in their home at Cedarville, Ohio."

Mrs. Winter was one of Ironton's most beautiful and charming ladies and her friends are limited only by her acquaintances. She is beloved by everyone and while Ironton loses the joy of her presence here she will rapidly make new friends in her new home and the wealth of her culture and refinement will be quickly recognized. Without a doubt Mrs. Winter was one of Ironton's most valued residents. Sincere wishes for her joy and wellbeing go with her to her new home and hearty and cordial congratulations are given the groom upon his conquest.

Carmi Thompson Coming Saturday

The Republican campaign in the county will open Saturday when Carmi Thompson, candidate for governor and Ex-congressman J. Adam Bede of Minnesota will speak at various places.

Candidate Thompson comes to this county from a tour of Warren county and his first stop will be at Springfield at 9:30 Saturday morning.

The next stop will be at Wilberforce University where he will address the citizens and students. From there he comes to Cedarville taking lunch here at noon and at one o'clock will give a public address.

Following the meeting here the party will go back to Xenia where a meeting will be held in the opera house at 3 p. m. Saturday night. Mr. Thompson speaks in Wilmington.

Mr. Bede spoke at the local chautauqua several years ago and those who heard him then will want to hear him again.

Mr. Thompson and Mr. Bede should be greeted with a good sized crowd. The issues in the campaign are clear cut. There is no question how Thompson stands on important issues. This cannot be said of his opponent, Mr. Donahay. Come out and hear these speakers Saturday at 1 p. m.

DRYS HOLD MASS MEETING

The drys held a mass meeting in the First U. P. church, Xenia, Monday at which time plans were made for the coming campaign. A. A. LEAGUE IS DEBATING SOCIETY

Theodore Burton, member of Congress, who has just returned from a tour of Europe, comes out in a strong statement taking a stand against cancelling American loans to the Allies.

Mr. Burton is one of the leading members of Congress, has a wide knowledge of world events and conditions and his judgment is seldom ever questioned.

He states that these loans were made in good faith and are a binding obligation; were not made from revenue but from the borrowings of our people as a result of great sacrifice no other loans should be made abroad until the war loans have been paid.

Mr. Burton stated that he attended several meetings of the League of Nations. He termed it a "big debating society."

Contrast Mr. Burton's views with those of Woodrow Wilson and James M. Cox, both of whom are pro-British. England has suggested that America cancel our loans. How many Liberty Bond holders will risk the next Congress under the control of the Wilson-Cox leadership that lean now to the cancellation of this debt?

DEMOCRACY COMES FIRST

William Jennings Bryan, noted in former years as the standing candidate on the Democratic ticket for president, but of more recent years chautauqua lecturer, prohibition advocate and writer of Sunday School topics, is to have a part in the coming campaign.

Monday's dispatches state that he will campaign in Nebraska for his brother, Charles Bryan, as a candidate for governor and also for the re-election of Senator Hitchcock, on the Democratic ticket. Word has also been given out that Bill will have a part in the Ohio campaign for the Democrats.

We wonder what Bill is going to do with his dry activities while on the stump for Senator Hitchcock, the wet leader in the Senate.

The same could be asked if Bill comes to Ohio to support Pomerene for re-election after his vote against the dry and also against suffrage for women. Congressman Fess, the Republican nominee against Pomerene has given support to both propositions.

Bryan on the stump in Ohio will support Donahey for governor against Carmi Thompson, Republican nominee. Donahey is being supported by the organization opposed to the Volstead act, while Thompson is openly dry.

Democracy seems to be at rest with William Jennings.

INTOXICATED MAN KILLS ONE; AND INJURED ONE

Leban Childress of near South Solon has been placed under arrest in Springfield as the result of an auto accident that cost the life of Newton Millions and serious injury to Joseph Morris, both of Springfield. The accident happened on the National pike when Childress ran down the two men with his auto. He is charged with being in an intoxicated condition at the time. Only a few days before he was fined in Springfield for operating an auto while in an intoxicated condition.

Shellac

Shellac is the joint product of insects and plants and comes from India. The lac insects are about 1/25 of an inch long, a bright red in color. They suck the juices of plants, digest them and exude them in the form of resin, which soon encases the whole insect. When the young insects have swarmed out, the resin is scraped from the branches, ground, washed, mixed with colophony and turpentine, cooked slowly and drawn out into the thin sheets we know as shellac.

It's a long story but you get all of it "The Golden Snare" at the Murdock Theatre next Thursday night.

Mrs. Elmer Specker will hold a public sale next Friday, October 20 at which time 3 head of horses; 2 head of cows; 67 head of hogs; and a large amount of farm implements and some household goods will be sold. 35 ton of clover hay and 500 shocks of corn will also be sold.

Bram survives long enough to explain the mystery of Celie, found as a baby in an ice-bound explorers ship, sole survivor of a raid by a murderous band of Esquimaux. "I have kept Celie all these years and now—" You hear all that when you see "The Golden Snare" at the Murdock theatre next Thursday night.

The Greene County Farm Bureau is considering the purchase of a radio outfit in the central office in Xenia. The committee is composed of Mr. W. B. Bryson, Herman W. Eavey, Ford S. Prince, and A. E. Swaby. Mr. Swaby has an outfit of his own at his home and has operated it with considerable success. The radio if installed will be used to receive market reports.

Names of persons drawn for jury service in the U. S. court from this county are: grand jury, M. C. Bailey, Xenia; George Flatter, Yellow Springs; Fisher Littleton, Yellow Springs; Pettit, W. B. Bryson, Xenia; Towne Carlisle, Yellow Springs; Frank Harper, Jamestown; A. D. Mustard, Xenia.

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 15

THE MINISTRY OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

LESSON TEXT—Luke 3:1-22.

GOLDEN TEXT—Repent ye, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.—Matt. 3:2.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Matt. 11:2-19; Phil. 2:21-23.

PHILIP'S TOPIC—What John Said About Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—John Preaching and Baptizing.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—A Fearless Reformer.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Repentance: What It Is and What It Does.

I. The Degeneracy of the Times (vv. 1, 2).

The Jews had sunk to a very low level of civil, moral and religious life. Luke carefully enumerates the civil and religious rulers in order to show the profligacy of the times, and therefore the need of a messenger to call the people back to God and virtue. Herod, the son of the Great, was a murderer. Annas and Caiaphas were corrupt ecclesiastical rulers.

II. The Nature of John's Ministry (vv. 3-6).

In the wilderness he underwent a discipline which fitted him for his task. Out of the wilderness he flashed forth preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins (v. 3). This ministry is declared to be a fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy. The message was described as one calling upon the nation to prepare for the coming of the Messiah. This preparation was presented under the figure of a journey. A servant was sent before to prepare the highway. Valleys needed to be filled, mountains and hills needed to be lowered, crooked places needed to be made straight and rough places needed to be made smooth. Today before the nations will receive Christ, the valleys need to be filled with righteous deeds, the exceeding high mountains of sin and iniquity need to be brought low, the crooked dealings of the business world must be straightened out, and the rough ways of nations and individuals must be smoothed out. Men must repent of their sins before they can receive Christ.

III. The Content of John's Message (vv. 7-18).

1. Denunciation of Sin (vv. 7, 8). He called them "a generation of vipers." This shows that he charged them with deceitfulness and wickedness. Knowing the subtle hypocrisy of these Jews, he demanded evidence of their sincerity—the genuineness of their repentance, was to be demonstrated by their works.

2. Announcement of Judgment (v. 9). He declared that the axe was laid at the root of the tree and that the tree not bringing forth fruit was to be hewn down and cast into the fire. John made it very plain that for their sins they should be called into judgment. Paul's preaching of a judgment to come made Felix tremble (Acts 24:25).

3. Instructions to the Inquirers (vv. 10-14). (1) The people (vv. 10, 11). Each man was to turn from his besetting sin and show love and kindness to his fellow men. Clothing and food were to be given those who had need. They were to turn from a life of selfishness and greed and do unto others as they would be done by. (2) Publicans (vv. 12, 13). These tax-gatherers who were guilty of greed and oppression were not asked to give up their occupation, but to exact only that which was appointed by law. (3) The soldiers (v. 14). These were likely the policemen of that day—at least the police of the temple. He told them to extort money from no man, to accuse none falsely, and to be content with their wages. To all these classes he made it clear that they should henceforth perform their duty from a motive of love instead of selfishness and greed.

4. Testimony to Jesus (vv. 15-18). The people were musing in their hearts as to whether John was indeed the Messiah. When John perceived this he with fine humility declared that his mission was so lowly in comparison with Christ's that he would be unworthy to perform the menial act of a slave in loosing the latchet of His shoes. John baptized with water, but Christ, he declared, would baptize with the Holy Ghost and with fire.

IV. John's Imprisonment (vv. 19, 20).

Because of his reproof of Herod for his wicked lewdness and other sins John went to the dungeon. The preacher of righteousness must become a martyr. God's faithful prophets are usually despised by the world, even cast into prison, burned, or beheaded.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Freshmen and Sophomores enjoyed a very delightful time at the home of Ruth Strohbridge. Of course an exciting time would be expected. "Oh, you Bad Eggs."

The next Literary will be given on Thursday afternoon at 2 P. M. This date has been changed from Friday afternoon. A good entertainment is being worked out and the public is invited to come.

Wednesday the Weatherman was for us but Fate was against us. The thermometer stood at 55 degrees and 80 degrees in all the rooms—with no coal in the basement. Rumor was spread about that if we had no fire by noon, we would have no school. Needless to say we were very much delighted. Imagine one's feelings when we began to hear the noise of coal sliding down the shutters. Soon we were comfortably warm and school proceeds as before.

NEVER-THING.
For the last few weeks it has been hot in school (owing to the weather?). But now that it is cool we don't need to worry—the teachers will make it hot for us.

Mrs. Wilson—(History Class) — Well, I think it's about time to — Ryman D. — "start a fire." Betty, keep up your good work — You'll be an artist some day.

Mr. Drewes—"What is the purpose of the esophagus, Mr. Spracklin?" Raymond S. "To push the food into the stomach."
Can you imagine, Floyd B. without his "horse laugh?"
Lois McF. without her "giggles?"
Carson W. without his number 11's.
Elita St. J. without her smile?
Willard B. without his "gab?"
In Biology—studying about frogs.
Lucile R. "Mr. Drewes, some frogs are pretty large aren't they?"
Mr. Drewes—"Yes, some are very large."

"Johnny" Davis is back with us again. We're glad to see you back "ol top" and we hope you are feeling fine after your weeks of illness.

Lucinda Caskey was away to spend the week-end. She had a fine time and hopes to go again soon.

Frank Gerren spent a worth while week-end up at Columbus, attending a joint convention of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. Dean Voyte of the Y. W. C. A. was one of the principle speakers; and Dean Conrad of Connecticut gave a very interesting address in the forenoon, followed by Mr. Ebersole, who in a pleasant manner presented the problems of the eastern countries and the aid the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A.'s are giving them. There were many young men and women in attendance and the State University gave them a royal welcome.

Tests have been visiting almost every class in the past week either for better or for worse, but all the students resolve to settle down to good, steady work and make the most of every minute.

SATURDAY CANDY DAY.

Saturday, October 14th is the National Candy Day in the U. S. It is the one day of the year when there should be a box of candy in every home. Remember the kiddies, large and small, and friend wife would not object to a box of candy.

NOTICE TO THE ELECTORS OF CEDARVILLE TOWNSHIP RURAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

The Board of Education of above named district finds the maximum rate of levy, authorized by the General Code of Ohio, to be insufficient to meet outstanding obligations and properly maintain the Public School of said District: have under Section 5649-5 of the General Code passed a resolution to submit to the qualified electors of said district, November 7, 1922, the question of an additional levy—as an emergency—of two (2) mills per year for 4 years.
The form of ballot will be:
"For an additional levy of taxes for an emergency, not exceeding 2 mills for not to exceed 4 years, Yes."
"For an additional levy of taxes for an emergency, not exceeding 2 mills, for not to exceed 4 years, No."
Such election will be held November 7, 1922, at the usual voting places of Cedarville Township and Cedarville Village.
By order of the Board of Education, Andrew Jackson, Clerk.
